

Adult Sunday School Classes

- 8:30—Room 304 The Wesley Class (Older Empty Nesters)

Grow in understanding of the Christian Faith and learn how to walk closer to Christ and His way each day. We think about our beliefs through scripture, the teachings of those who have gone before, our experience, prayer and reflection. Next class will be 9/8/19. Contact Terry Harrison: wentharrison52@gmail.com

- 9:30—Room 300 In the Middle (40s and 50s—Meets every other Sunday)

Primarily made up of adults in their 40s and 50s who are looking for fellowship, community, and spiritual growth. Studies various relevant topics for Christian living whatever stage of the journey you find yourself. Last class May 5 until the beginning of August. Contact Rosie Rausch: rosierausch@hotmail.com

- 9:30—Room 304 Journey Class (Multi-generational)

Committed to strengthening our knowledge of the Bible and our faith journey as it translates into today's world. We welcome a multi-generational approach, so if you're in high school, out of high school, or can hardly remember high school, welcome! Off this summer from June 30-August 4. Contact Jill Fair: jillfair72@yahoo.com

- 10:45 Room 306 Ad-Loy-Ho Sunday School (Older Empty Nesters)

Dedicated to the study of God's word. We use the Cokesbury Adult Bible Study Curriculum and focus on topics relevant to empty nesters and grandparents. Contact Robert Carpenter: carpenter334@juno.com

- 10:45 Room 144/145 (1st floor new building) Friendship Sunday School (Empty Nesters)

Composed of adult seekers, grandparents, and empty nesters that are dedicated to the study of God's word through in-depth reading and discussion of particular books of the Bible. Contact Chris Clark: cghc@yahoo.com

- 10:45 Room 302 Table Talk (Parents of high school to grown kids)

For parents and their high school (or older) kids. Table talk is a class dedicated to studying Scripture and its application in our lives through the reading and discussion of selected books of the bible. We provide opportunities for family members to share experiences and insights with one another during class discussion and throughout the week. Contact Wayne Sanders: swaynesanders@gmail.com . For June and July schedule, please contact Wayne.

- 11:00 Room 308 Faith Family & Friends (Families with young children—Meets once a month)

Meets regularly for small group studies and organizes family fellowship for PTCUMC's young families with children. For dates and times for summer please follow on Facebook PTCUMC Faith Family & Friends. Classes will resume in August. Contact Melissa Gwozdz: mbgwozdz@gmail.com

- 11:00 Room 300 Pathfinders (Empty Nesters)

A Bible based discussion class that studies contemporary topics from an empty nester and grandparents' perspective. Contact Dan McCarthy: odu.monarch@gmail.com

More on the back.....

Small Groups

A small group is an intentional gathering, meeting regularly for the purpose of joining God's Mission.

Please join us for our Small Group Launch Party:

Tuesday, September 17th at 7:00pm

*Our next launch party will be held in January 2020

Disciple II: Into the word, Into the World (Mon 7:00-9:00pm Aug 12-April 6)

Joshua, Winning the Worry Battle (Weds 9:30-11:30am Sept 4-Oct 9)

A Long Story Short (A 24-week journey through scripture geared toward teens & parents, Sun 4:30-6:00pm Aug 11-Feb 9)

Blessed are the Jesus Chicks: A Christian Mother's Guide to Life, Love & Work (Weds 6:00-7:30pm Aug 21-Dec 18)

The Acts of the Holy Spirit (Thurs 10:00-11:30a Aug 15-Oct 17)

Men's Bible Study (Thurs 6:30-7:30am ongoing)

Jonah-Navigating a Life Interrupted (Tues 6:30-8:30pm Sept 10-Oct 22)

Invitation to John (Sunday afternoons 3:30-5:00pm Aug 11-Oct20)

Occasionally we offer 1/2 day and full-day workshops! In the past we have offered workshops on prayer, how to tell your story, and Holy Week. Please be sure to check our website or weekly update email for future offerings! (ptcumc.org.)